

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What Makes JWYBL different from other leagues?

- First and foremost the JWYBL is a developmental league. We pride ourselves in creating a fun, engaging and positive learning environment. We are a direct partners with Next Level Sports Complex which allows us to have first priority of gym time for all our games, practices and academies. Our staff is a paid and certified staff. We do not have Mom's or Dad's coaching their own children. Your son or daughter will play for a coach that has had to pass JWbasketball certification. All staff are compensated employees that work with us in other capacities. Your athlete will learn the values of teamwork, good sportsmanship and how to play the game of basketball. We do not push winning at any cost, we place overall development; not merely physically, but mentally, socially and emotionally.

Why should my son or daughter play for the JWYBL?

- We offer what other programs can't; indoor facilities (for practices and games), paid coaches, curriculum based practices and free Academies which will not only speed up the developmental process but will reinforce what is being taught at team practices.

What days are JWYBL practices and what time and how long?

- Practice days are dependant upon your head coach . Practice days will fall under one of three days; Monday, Tuesday or Thursday. Practice times will run for 1 hour and begin at 5pm or 6pm.
